In the last lot of checks sent us we found the inclosed imperfect one — we paid it and to a child who observed some difference and rubbed it with a knife and handed it back to us — this the first & only false impression we have seen & supposed you might be interested to get it hence the inclosure

In the last lot of nickels sent us we found the inclosed imperfect one – we paid it out to a child who observed some difference and rubbed it with a knife and handed it back to us. It is the first & only false impression we have seen & supposed you might be interested to get it hence the inclosure.
